SAVE SOME OF IT — The chairman of the Committee on Hints and Hunches this week submitted a recommendation that two meat hours be established daily. "There are many working women who cannot find the time to get down town in the morning or at noon, when the meat arrives, to stand in line," she reported, "why not put meat on sale twice? Then the working woman could have a chance at a steak or chop when day is done." . . . And that's not all. There's many a man, batching it and working, who has no little woman to go down town to stand in line for him. He'd like a chance at a slice of meat, too. . . . On the other hand, if a man is too stingy to get married, maybe he doesn't deserve meat.

NEW LINE-UP — Down at Long Beach and San Pedro, long lines of women waiting for hubbies and sweethearts, used to mean that "the fleet's in". Now long lines of women all over Southern California, before markets, mean that the meat's in. . . . Which reminds me that a vegetarian who likes to hike, certainly has the laugh on his fellowmen these days. . . . That old gag which used to run "I'd give you some ham and eggs if you had some eggs — and I had some ham," isn't so funny right now. . . . But the way some of these outsiders drool when they talk about meat, down here in Palm Springs we must be doing all right.

STOP MEANS SLOW — For many years a lot of motorists were of the opinion that S-T-O-P spelled "slow". For they never stopped for a Stop sign. Now there are a dozen places here where they can get away with it. Twelve stop signs are to be eliminated in the effort to conserve gasoline. . . . Why wouldn't it be a good idea to substitute this sign for detoured stop signs: SLOW — Yield Right of Way. . . . Then a motorist approaching an arterial highway would know that if all was clear, he could go ahead but that if anything was on the road, he had to give it the right of way. . . . That's what most motorists have been doing, anyway.

GOOD NEWS — Best news of the week, said Wilson O. Gibbs whose store is at the corner of Arenas road and Palm Canyon drive, is that which indicates the council plans to do something about the pools of water which gather at that corner each morning. . . . For some time now Gibbs (Continued on page Seven)

Plans Completed for Open House Next Friday at New Health Center

Realization of a long cherished dream on the part of Palm Springs has been the opening this season of the newly completed Public Health Center at 299 East Amado road. In order that everyone may see and inspect the building an Open House has been set for the afternoon of Friday, January 25, from 3 to 5 o'clock. At that time the public and the public's friends are invited to call.

The Health Center has played an important part in the public health of Palm Springs and vicinity in the few short months since its opening last summer and the scope for its work is widening constantly.

Free clinics and examinations which could be held only two or three times a year in the past can now be held whenever needed. Many patients were required to go to other communities where necessary equipment was

Councilmen Move To Put an End to "Tower of Babel"

Acoustics at the new office of the Palm Springs war price and rationing board are none too good and when a large throng of villagers gather there to ask why they cannot have more gasoline or to query as to the when and where of the new No. 2 rationing book registration, the well-known Tower of Babel is said to pale into insignificance.

So Ray Sorum, director of public works, spent the latter part of the week in Los Angeles, studying inexpensive sound-proofing methods, one of which will be installed to still the sometimes nerve-wrecking din.

The matter was before city council Wednesday night for consideration

Fire Takes Heavy Toll In Groceries

Meat, Eggs and
Bread Destroyed
In Truck Blaze

Fire, which started toward the rear end of a big Safeway Stores company produce truck did an estimated $17,500 in damage Monday morning despite a spectacular race against disaster staged by the driver and the Palm Springs fire department.

The truck was driven by Emmett Simonton of Los Angeles who discovered shortly before reaching the Palm Springs depot that the truck was ablaze.

RACE AGAINST FIRE

Simonton pressed a passing auto into service and asked him to hurry to the depot to notify the local fire department. In the meantime, Simonton started for Palm Springs to meet the firemen.

As he raced toward the village, smoke pouring from the rear of the truck, Fire Chief Bill Leonzio and his crew, raced north on Palm Canyon drive.

The fire and the firemen met just inside the city limits. The flames had gained considerable headway by then but were soon checked and subdued by the fire department. But much damage had been done by fire and smoke.

LOSS IS HEAVY

Quantities of bread were reduced to burnt toast, eggs had popped open and burned and much meat was destroyed.

It was estimated the loss was $800 in meat, $400 in eggs and $50 in bread. Damage to the truck was estimated at $500.

Another truck of produce was dispatched to Palm Springs to replace lost and damaged goods arriving here late the same day.

New Service for Villagers Goes
On Trial Runs

The Citizens' Bus line started operations Monday along Palm Canyon drive to serve the needs of villagers who, because of gasoline and rubber rationing, do not want to break out the family car for every brief expedition to the business district.

The first week of operation was more or less on an experimental line to determine schedules and routes of the greatest convenience to villagers.

COUNCIL AIDS

City Council Wednesday night heard a report of the first two days' operations from Mayor F. V. Shannon and acted on two requests from the Tanner Motor Livery, operators of the bus lines, to facilitate service.

At the request of Cecil Isenagel, manager of the Tanner Livery here, the license granted the company last year for city bus operation was removed by council. Request for two bus stops downtown was also granted.

Sorum Loses Six Titles But Gains A New Better One

Ray Sorum, holder of six combined city offices, was shorn of six titles Wednesday night and given a new one which covers all of the positions.

Mr. Sorum is now director of public works.

Mayor F. V. Shannon explained that all of the previous titles were too cumbersome and council thereupon unanimously adopted a resolution creating a director of public works for as long a time as one man held all of the positions involved.

Desert Trails Much Cleaner

Los Compadres Club
Cleans Up Rubbish

The desert around Palm Springs is a lot cleaner today than it was a week ago, thanks to the valiant effort of a score of members of Las Compadres club who combined hard work with pleasure last Sunday and staged a rubbish clean-up which, while it didn't do all the club wanted to do, made the trails and by-ways more pleasant for riders.

Opportunity Is Ignored

Salvage Gold
Mine Revealed
By Walter Illick

Walter Illick, Palm Springs resident who has been surveying city and foundry dumps, rifle ranges and other similar spots for salvage possibilities, said this week that the United States government is overlooking a vast field in its hunt for much-needed metals and that thousands of tons of metal may be reclaimed if proper and immediate steps were taken.

Illick is endeavoring to interest high government officials in the projects and his figures, obtained after exhaustive studies and actual experience, are impressive.

DESCRIBE TESTS

He prepared a statement on results of experiments at one dump in Los Angeles which reveals some astounding figures.

His statement, which will be submitted to congressmen and high war production board officials, follows:

"On January 2, 1942, climaxing 14 months of experimental effort, a city disposal dump in Los Angeles, was being salvaged by mining methods. This is believed to be the first operation of its kind ever accomplished.

Bond Campaign Sets High Goal

Shortest Month in Year Selected for Longest List of Bond Sales; $300,000
Drive to Start on First of February

Plans were being mobilized today by the Palm Springs War Bond committee to buy Uncle Sam a heavy bomber to send into action against the Axis bearing the name, "City of Palm Springs" on its nose.

The committee plans to make February, the shortest month in the year, the longest in bond sales.

To realize this ambition, $300,000 worth of bonds will have to be sold here during the month.

IT CAN BE DONE

J. Paul Russell, manager of the Bank of America here and chairman of the war bond committee says it can be done. He was enthusiastic when the idea was broached by The Desert Sun and immediately set preliminary wheels in action.

Information from the field division of the war savings staff of the treasury department lays down a few simple rules for the conduct of a "Buy a Bomber" plan.

IN DESIGNATED TIME

A specific time must be set for the campaign. In the case of Palm Springs, the shortest month in the year, February, was chosen as an extra challenge to patriotic purchasers in the Village.

The sum total of bonds must equal the price of a bomber. Announcement of plane costs were forwarded to Mr. Russell. A pursuit plane costs $75,000, a medium bomber, $175,000, and a heavy bomber, $300,000.

SHOOT FOR TOP

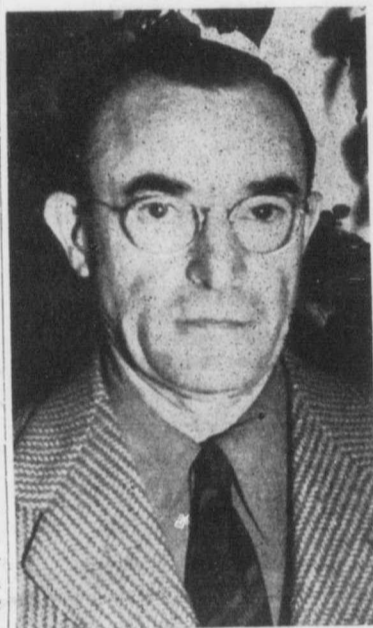

It was decided that Palm Springs would not take a second or third row seat for anybody and that the Village should shoot for the top, a heavy bomber.

Upon completion of the campaign—and there is no doubt in the minds of committeemen that it can be done—the name "City of Palm Springs" will be stenciled across the nose of the bomber and it will go into action named after this famous winter resort.

MAY HAVE SKY PARADE

Major R. H. Anthis, of the Ferrying Command, has been contacted and promised full cooperation to any extent military regulations permit. If a parade of bombers, such as the one which will bear Palm Springs' name, is possible, there will be one.

Frank W. Cutler, of 348 Merito place, a resident of Palm Springs for some time and long identified with many civic organizations and activities in the village, became the new councilman from the Fifth district Wednesday evening.

Mr. Cutler, whose appointment was urged at the city council meeting on January 6 by most residents of the Fifth district, succeeds Ray M. Sorum, who recently resigned to assume the post of director of public works.

Civilian Defense

News of the Activities of
The Palm Springs Council

Paraphrasing the widely known S. P. slogan, the Palm Springs civilian defense council, this week advised villagers, contemplating down-town shopping trips:

The next time, try the bus. The Citizens Bus line went into service along Palm Canyon drive Monday morning. The route at present is a temporary one as experiments are made to find one which will be of the greatest convenience to the public.

Villagers were urged to patronize the bus as it was inaugurated just for them to relieve problems caused by gasoline rationing.

"The Citizens Bus line is your bus line. Use it. It cannot be operated at a loss," director Earl E. Gibbs of the defense council, urged villagers.

OH, RUBBISH!—When members of Las Compadres club got out last Sunday to clean up the desert, they accumulated this pile of trash after a strenuous morning of work. It contains 150 cubic yards of rubbish and was it work! But the desert is a lot cleaner as result of their labors.

Another Plea for Warm Clothing Is Made to Villagers

Once again the desperate need for clothing for small children must be brought to the attention of the villagers of Palm Springs. The picture of small children being unable to go to school, because of the lack of warm clothing, is not a pretty one, but one which needs immediate attention.

There are not many children who are in this condition, but even one would be one too many, and the need is here waiting for an immediate answer.

Clothing for children of all ages is needed, and warm underwear and socks are included in the list. Some mothers can sew and could make over garments from pieces which could be available from some cast-off articles. New material could be fashioned into new little pants and dresses at small cost to the donor and would give great pride to the wearer.

Householders who have contributions for this need, as well as for the constant need for household effects, curtains, dishes and bedding, are asked to telephone Mrs. Charles Burket at 3213, who will make arrangements to pick up bundles. The Red Cross office at Palm Canyon Drive and Tahquitz Drive, will keep bundles for Mrs. Burket, also.

City Resolution Asks State Help As Expenses Grow

Because the war is saddling many unexpected and additional expenses upon municipalities, and because the military situation at the same time, is removing taxable property from city assessment lists thus reducing the revenue, Palm Springs city council Wednesday night adopted a resolution urging the state legislature to act to recompense municipalities from state funds.

Copies of the resolution will be forwarded by Mrs. Louise McCarn, acting city manager, to Assemblyman Nelson Dilworth, representing this district at Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fisher of Pasadena entertained at luncheon at The Desert Inn for Miss Mary McAbee, their house guest, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gill.

Harry H. Hanbury, widely known Palm Springs resident, enjoyed an unexpected and pleasant thrill this week when he opened the pages of the Saturday Evening Post.

Compensation for Volunteers Asked In City Resolution

By resolution, city council Wednesday night addressed an appeal to congress asking speed in adoption of a measure to provide compensation for volunteer members of civilian defense organizations in case of injury or death.

The resolution sets forth that these workers for the government are volunteers, serving a patriotic cause without pay, adding that some program should be set up to protect them and their families in the event they meet disaster while performing their war duties.

Mrs. Louise McCarn was instructed to send a copy of the resolution to California senators and to Congress John Phillips, at Washington.

Light and Warning Notice to Combat Rubbish Dumping

Installation of a light at the service station at the northwest corner of Andreas road and Indian avenue, which has not been opened this season, and periodic clean-ups are expected to solve the problem of rubbish dumping there. Mrs. Louise McCarn, acting city manager, reported to city council Wednesday night.

The dark station is an invitation to dump rubbish, bottles and other junk, council was told at its January 6 meeting by Councilman C. P. Adams and Mrs. McCarn was instructed to seek a remedy. A sign, calling attention to Ordinance 100, which prohibits rubbish dumping within the city limits, will be installed by Ray Sorum of the Public Works Department, Mrs. McCarn told councilmen.

Money Paid to War Chest Deductible

John R. E. Chaffey of the War Recreation council this week received official word from J. Mooney, deputy commissioner for the treasury department, that contributions made to the Palm Springs War Chest fund are deductible items in figuring income tax returns.

Mayor and Wife Honor Guests on 50th Anniversary

Guests at the Vaughan Arms, owned and operated by Mayor and Mrs. Frank V. Shannon, got together in a little conspiracy Saturday and at 1:30 that afternoon, the mayor and his wife were guests of honor at a dinner, planned, prepared and served by their guests.

They had taken the tables from the cottages and set them up as one long table in the patio at the Vaughan Arms. Each guest had prepared part of the sumptuous dinner and it was a turkey feast with all the appurtenances.

MANY FLOWERS

The tables were decorated with a profusion of flowers which had been arriving all day at the mayor's residence from friends here and from afar.

Besides flowers, the mail for the Shannons last week end was jammed with gifts and remembrances of their Golden Wedding day.

Both the mayor and his wife were called upon for speeches by the guests and responded with happy talks.

Three Artists Delight Women's Club Members and Guests at Recital Here

By MARTHA FORWARD

A recital of considerable importance was attended by a large group of members and guests at the Palm Springs Woman's Club on Monday afternoon when three accomplished artists of the concert and operatic stage—Olive Mae Beach, young coloratura soprano, Michael Sorensen, baritone, and Richard Tetly-Kardos, concert pianist, were heard, in what was to many, the outstanding performance of the club year.

A high degree of artistry marked the interpretations by Miss Beach of arias from the compositions of Mozart, Schumann, Gibbs and Rossini, and won appreciative applause from the audience. Her clear soprano voice showed fine training and great ability and revealed a high range, rich in tone, and, coupled with a scintillating personality, forecasts a brilliant career for the youthful singer.

SHOWS JOY OF SONG

Michael Sorensen voiced his songs with so much beauty and vigor, smiled so spontaneously and spread about him such a zest for living, that he captivated his audience completely. He makes singing seem a man's natural form of expression. His performance was enhanced by a dynamic personality capable of uplifting his listeners into the "joy of song."

The playing of Richard Tetly-Kardos demonstrated such remarkable technique, speed, endurance, precision, color, time, accent and phrasing, that all who heard acclaimed him as a musical genius, possessing a rare spiritual interpretation that transports from the mundane to the ethereal—far beyond the original intent of the composer—holding the muted attention of his audience long after the last note had ended.

HOLDS AUDIENCE

Introducing his group of numbers with "Waltz in A Flat" and "Nocturne in C Sharp Minor," by Chopin, his sustained tones carried his playing over into "Serenade" by Richard Strauss, and reached a climax in his magnificent rendition of "Serenade For a Doll" and "Fireworks" by Debussy, holding his audience completely in the grip of his playing.

The fourth group of numbers was presented an ensemble by this trio of artists, choosing songs from familiar Light Operas, with Miss Beach and Mr. Sorensen singing together, "Italian Street Song," from "Naughty Marietta," "Love Me To-night," from "The Vagabond King," "Chocolate Soldier," and "Song of Love," from "Blossom Time"—Tetly-Kardos accompanying on the piano—proving the ability of these artists to perform with unison harmony.

JOIN ARMED SERVICE

This was the last appearance of Tetly-Kardos and Sorensen before leaving to serve their country in conflict.

At the request of Mrs. Ralph Clock, the club's president, Mrs. Donald Lockett read to the members, a report of the secretary of the Welfare and Friendly Aid section of the club, of the financial status of that group which has become a definite asset to the community through their laudable efforts in aiding the unfortunate—furnishing clothing, food and medical attention.

This group will hold open house at their new Palm Springs Health Center on the afternoon of January 29, from 3 to 5 o'clock. State and County Medical officials will be there to assist in receiving club members and all interested Palm Springs residents who wish to see through the clinic which is now adequately equipped for laboratory work, health conference and clinical treatment.

URGES ALL TO ATTEND

Mrs. Clock urged all members to attend, if possible, the meeting of the Riverside County Federation of Women's Clubs at Riverside, on Friday, January 22, from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Mrs. John Robert Macartney announced that the Bible Section of the club were beginning their classes on Tuesday afternoons at the Community church, under the direction of Dr. Macartney, pastor of the church. It is interesting to know that they will study "The Book of Revelations" which should afford spiritual insight into the complexities arising out of our present conflict.

AT SOCIAL HOUR

Assisting Mrs. Irving Snyder as hostesses for the social hour following the program, were Mrs. Chas. D. Farrell, Mrs. Grace Flood Robert, Mrs. Thomas A. Clawson, Mrs. Frederick Rose, Mrs. M. A. Selinger, Mrs. J. Darsie Lloyd and Mrs. Marvin D. Sale. Mrs. Farrell and Mrs. Clawson presided at the tea table which was centered with a low crystal bowl in which had been artistically arranged by Mrs. George F. Manington, sprays of Bel Bergia, a rare flower from the gardens of Mrs. Ralph Clock's Long Beach home. These same flowers were held in a bowl on the president's desk while a bank of petunias in bright spring colors filled the front of the stage.

Assisting Mrs. Leslie Williams in the receiving line were Miss Teresa M. Fields, Mrs. Frank Partridge, Mrs. Bradstreet Miller and Mrs. Horace F. Pendery.

ALONZO BAKER NEXT

The program committee were fortunate in securing Alonzo Baker, Lecturer and Commentator on world events, for their next program on February 1, which will be at 8 o'clock in the evening, instead of in the afternoon, as is usual, to afford the opportunity to everyone interested in hearing this dynamic speaker, of attending this meeting.

Mr. Baker has spoken to thousands of organizations across the country and his lectures are most pertinent to War Time and it is a rare opportunity to hear "What Is This Thing Called Liberty."

NO GUEST LIST

As the extra demands of the welfare, Red Cross, and Camp and Hospital Service, during this epoch of world conflict, necessitate an addition of funds to the budget, there will be no guest privileges accorded at this lecture. The charge for non-members will be $1.10.

Tickets for the lecture can be secured from Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell by telephoning 3814 or calling at her home, 301 North Belardo Road, on the Golf Course.

Sam Hinton Named Scoutmaster for Cub Scout Troop

Final steps toward the organization of a Cub Scout troop for Palm Springs were taken Friday night at a meeting at Frances S. Stevens school when a scoutmaster, assistant and four den mothers were named.

Sam D. Hinton, director of the Desert Museum was named Scoutmaster and Maurice Johnson, member of the local school faculty staff, was named assistant.

KNOWS THE DESERT

Choice of Mr. Hinton as scoutmaster was deemed a happy one as he is well qualified for the job with his knowledge of the desert and out-of-doors. Mr. Hinton plans to take the scouts on several field trips to points of interest in the vicinity of Palm Springs.

Four Den Mothers were also appointed to advise and counsel the boys. They are Mrs. F. J. Hall, Mrs. Culver Nichols, Mrs. Maurice McCann and Mrs. Amsbough. Scouts will be assigned to the den mothers according to the district in which they live.

MEETING PLANNED

Weekly meetings will be held by the dens with a monthly rally of all of the Cub Scout troop.

The new troop is sponsored by the Palm Springs Lions club.

Rationing Proves Aid to Attendance At Desert Museum

The Palm Springs Desert Museum has, in the past months of gasoline rationing and curtailed travel, averaged a higher daily attendance and elicited greater interest than at any other time in its previous existence.

These facts were brought out in a report made by Sam D. Hinton, director of the institution, at a recent meeting of the board of directors. In view of the vague doubts held by a few in regard to the Museum's continued value to the community in war-time, the report was received with considerable gratification by the board, whose confidence in the cultural and practical advantages offered by the Museum has remained unshaken even in these trying times.

ATTENDANCE GAINS

According to Mr. Hinton, the average daily attendance at the Museum has been 53.3 persons up until January 1, as against 49.7 average for last year.

Total attendance has been 2310. Only a relatively small portion of this increase may be ascribed to the presence of service men; for the most part, it has been due to those townspeople and visitors who, presumably, have discovered that the village offers much of interest that they overlooked in the days when gasoline and rubber were to be had for the asking.

Exhibits in the past, as well as the current one on desert insects, have attracted a great deal of attention, and the questions asked have kept Director Hinton in fine fettle, much in the manner of a prize-fighter who remains at a peak of training (if such gentry ever do. At any rate, Mr. Hinton does).

DIFFERENT STORY

In the matter of field trips, the picture becomes a bit different. The problem appears to be to arouse sufficient interest in the breasts of incipient hikers to persuade them to join the Museum group; once they have made the break they are uniformly enthusiastic, and often come back for repeats.

Service men, who are invited to participate free of charge, have been a little shy. This is not the spirit, and these men are assured that picking 'em up and laying 'em down on a Museum hike is a far cry from doing it under the watchful eye of a tough drill sergeant.

FIELD TRIP TODAY

In this latter regard, Mr. Hinton announces that a field trip has been planned for this morning, beginning from the Museum at 9 a. m.

The trip will total approximately four miles, ending at the Museum at noon. A charge of fifty cents is made for non-members, twenty-five cents for children. Guests are invited, and as stated above, service men are welcome free of charge.

Redlands to Send Dance Partners for USO Dance Sunday

Next Sunday at the USO Hospitality House, an orchestra from one of armored division posts will play for an afternoon of dancing, it was announced this week.

A group of girls from Redlands will be present as well as Palm Springs girls from the Desert Detail.

The regular Saturday night dance will be held as usual this week-end.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name." This quotation from the Psalms will be the Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson.

Sermon on "Truth" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

"Give ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth." sang Moses in a selection taken from Deuteronomy.

"My doctrine shall drop as the dew, my speech shall distill as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass: Because I will publish the name of the Lord: ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he." In a passage from John, Jesus said to his followers: "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Mary Baker Eddy writes on this subject in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." "The spiritual sense of truth must be gained before Truth can be understood. This sense is assimilated only as we are honest, unselfish, loving, and meek." "Truth, spiritually discerned, is scientifically understood. It casts out error and heals the sick."

Community Church Group Exercises Between Courses

In case you were among the many motorists who had to drive slowly down the center of Palm Canyon drive last Saturday night around 6:15, you will be interested to know that all the bicyclists were twenty of the young people of the Community church on their way to a progressive dinner.

The dinner started at the church at 5:30 p. m. when the first course was served — soup. After the last cracker was munched all jumped on their bicycles and pumped their way up to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jenner, 1563 North Palm Canyon drive for the next course — salad. In order to relax a bit before going further some games were played, and they certainly kept some of the group guessing.

The main course was tamale pie and Mexican beans served with home baked rolls at Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harlow's 175 El Alameda. Miss Elaine Harlow entertained the group with various numbers on her accordion, and some of the boys tried to make the rest believe they could sing.

Leaving Harlow's the young folks had a pleasant coast down Palm Canyon drive, back to the church for more games and dessert. Mrs. John W. Williams furnished delicious fruit jello and cookies.

Those arranging the evening were Miss Jean H. Johnston, Miss Elaine Harlow, and Miss Bettie Neese.

Episcopal Church Vicar Is Flu Victim

The Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, vicar of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal church, was confined to his rooms this week as the result of a severe attack of influenza.

Sunday, Jan. 24 — 4 p. m. — Organ recital by Alexander Reilly, fellow of the American Guild of Organists; assisted by Alice Andrews Reilly, distinguished oratorio contralto.

THE FORWARD VIEW

One day not long before his retirement, the late Admiral Robley D. Evans was inspecting the battleship "New Hampshire." The sailors were all lined up, and Evans passed down the line, giving an occasional grunt of satisfaction as he went along.

He reached the end and started up the rear. Half way up, his keen eyes detected a sailor with his shoes not shined in the back. Out of the corner of his eye the sailor could see that something was amiss, and shuddered. But Evans walked up to the man and gave him a vigorous slap on the shoulder, exclaiming, "You're a brave lad, a very brave one." He gave the man another slap. "That's right," he said. "Always look in front; never mind the rear. If you fight your battles as you shine your shoes, you'll make a good sailor."

And with a chuckle he continued down the line.

Two Clinics To Be Staged Next Week At Health Center

Next week will be a busy one at the new city Health Center, 299 East Amado road. The big event, of course, will be the formal opening and house warming scheduled for January 29 at which time several county and state health officials are expected.

But while plans for the open house are going on, business as usual was the order for the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Madge Holderman, public health nurse, announced two clinics for the week.

One will be held on Monday, January 25. It will be the regular pre-natal clinic with Dr. Mildred Van Cleve, pediatrician from the county health office at Riverside, in charge.

Dr. Van Cleve will also be here the next day, Tuesday, January 26, for the monthly Child Health conference and clinic.

Il mothers who need the advice of the county health officer are urged to be present at these clinics.

Former Villager Featured in Story By L.A. Columnist

A former employee in a Palm Springs store, Staff Sergeant Norman Goldstein, a resident of Banning, was the hero of an episode related by Tom Treanor, Los Angeles Times columnist, now with U. S. forces in India.

According to Treanor, Staff Sgt. Goldstein's ship was making a bombing run at 20,000 feet, but for some reason some of the bombs stuck in the racks. The pilot said he would again fly over their objective, if some one would be willing to push the bombs off. Staff Sgt. Goldstein volunteered.

In order to push the bombs off it was necessary for him to climb out on the catwalk in the belly of the ship. When the bomb doors open there is nothing between the man, who intends to push them off, but 20,000 feet of air.

According to Treanor, the ship made the bombing run, the doors opened and Goldstein passed out from lack of oxygen. When other members of the crew found him, he was lying over the edge of the catwalk held there only by the stiffness of his winter clothing. He had missed falling with the bombs only by a miracle.

Goldstein is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldstein of Banning. He has another brother in the service, Pvt. Edward Goldstein, stationed at Fort Logan, Colo.

Ralph Gillmore Is Now in Toledo at Storekeeper School

Ralph Gillmore, formerly connected with the local Safeway store staff, and who joined the navy last year, has completed his recruit training in Idaho and has been transferred to Toledo, Ohio, according to a letter received here this week.

Gillmore is attending a storekeeper school in the Ohio city. "This is quite different from the desert around Palm Springs," he wrote. "I see icebergs now instead of sand dunes. Thanks very much for the copies of The Desert Sun. They keep me well supplied with the home town news."

Mrs. Dawson Goff Leaves for Midwest

Mrs. Dawson Goff left Palm Springs Tuesday for Camp Chaffee, Arkansas, to be near her husband, widely known village youth, who is now stationed there an armored unit of the U. S. Army.

Pvt. Goff left the village Dec. 9, going to Fort MacArthur. He was later transferred to the Arkansas base.

Three Outstanding Speakers Address Joint Meeting of Rotarians and Lions On Variety of Interesting Subjects

The Desert Inn's club dining room and the adjoining smaller private dining room were filled to capacity Wednesday with Rotarians, Lions, and their guests, who gathered to hear three stirring speakers. Two of them served in the first World War and the third in this one.

The speakers were brought here by George Relf of Santa Barbara, former Palm Springs apartment house operator and member of the local Lions and Rotary clubs while here.

The first speaker was Lieut. Joe Rayburn of the U. S. Navy, who was in the Midway and Solomon Islands naval campaigns. He told of the terrific fighting on the Solomons and lauded the marines for their heroism and courage. He also exhibited some relics taken from the Japs at Guadalcanal, among them a rifle, a section of a rudder from a Jap bomber, and an ugly looking knife.

FIGHTING IRISH MAYOR

Mayor Pat Maher of Santa Barbara, who has won national recognition because he defied labor organizers who attempted to unionize city employees, and then defied the War Labor Board to force any of its rulings on the city government, was the next speaker. He contended any municipality has the right to submit rulings of the War Labor Board to the voters for acceptance or rejection, and he was upheld by the court.

"From Valley Forge to Guadalcanal the American people have fought for the right to govern themselves," said the fighting Irish mayor, "and we must protect that right."

FIGHTING SALVATIONIST

The third speaker was also a fighter, Adjutant A. P. "Andy" Telfer of the Salvation Army, Division Young People's secretary in Los Angeles and has looked after 1622 boys during the past 10 years. He was a warrant officer in the British Navy during the first World War, and is the only man alive today who survived the torpedoing of his ship in the North Sea.

He ran away from home at the age of 14 and joined the British Navy, and then became a puglist, winning the lightweight championship of England.

For many years he was a Royal Naval Intelligence officer, serving in India, Russia, China, Singapore, Constantinople, and other points. He told about the formation of the Black Dragon Society in Japan 47 years ago with the avowed purpose of Asia for the Asiatics under Japanese domination. The Black Dragon members were determined to bring as many sons into the world as possible and thus use the infiltration method to accomplish their aims, sending them into the countries they intended to conquer.

For the past 27 years sons of the Black Dragon have become fishermen on foreign shores, charted on all the seas and shore lines, made material and industrial surveys of the countries Japan expected to fight. They built paths and roads through the forests of Malay peninsula which the British thought impregnable when Britain built the fortifications of Singapore and pointed the guns out to sea, but the Japs poured through the forests and came up from behind. Their No. 1 man, who helped build the British naval base, is now second in command of the Japanese navy, said Adjutant Telfer.

Community Dance Plan Is Suggested By Winter Visitor

Miss Grace Stahl, a school teacher from New York, who has been spending a brief vacation at the Palm Springs hotel, believes the village is missing one great opportunity in its recreation program.

With so many soldiers in town and so many tourists, she thinks a Community dance, probably twice a week, would "go over big." She suggested use of the school auditorium for folk and square dances as a start, interspersed with modern dances. "It needn't take much of an outlay," she said. "Just a place where people could go for wholesome fun."

Desert Cafe Will Be Operated Here By Barney Ostrow

Barney Ostrow, owner and operator of many popular eating and amusement places at Big Bear, in the San Bernardino mountains, has taken over the former Desert Rat cafe at 394 North Palm Canyon drive, and plans an early opening of Barney's Desert Cafe and Cocktail lounge he announced this week.

Mr. Ostrow, who has been active in the Big Bear district for twenty years, has been a winter visitor in Palm Springs for the past ten years and has long wanted to open an establishment in the village. He plans to conduct the Desert Cafe as a popular-priced restaurant and lounge.

He has held many civic positions at Big Bear, among them the distinction of being the "unofficial" mayor for many years. He was president of the Chamber of Commerce there for two years.

plies to invade Japan, Telfer said, and at the present rate of building it would require 10 years to do this. The only way to conquer Japan, he said, is to attack the shrine of Shintoism in Japan, and to do this it is necessary to build a strong air force with airbases in China, in Russian Siberia near Vladivostok, in Manchukuo, and other places, and thus bomb Japan until she disintegrates.

Among the 80 million Mohammedans in India there are 15 million men well trained and ready to fight for the United Nations. They will retake the Burma road and thus help liberate China and afford a back-door entrance for Allied troops.

Telfer is convinced that the United Nations will win the war. Dr. Henry S. Reid was chairman of the day and President Carl Lykken of the Rotary Club introduced the out-of-town Rotarians, while President Clarence Hyde of the Lions Club did the same for visiting Lions and their guests. Three Kiwanians were present, among them Irwin Farrar of Hemet, former Lieutenant-Governor of Kiwanis International.

Council Seeks Way To Dry Twin Lakes At Arenas Corner

The problem of the twin lakes at the intersection of Palm Canyon drive and Arenas road came before city council Wednesday night and another attempt to dry up the daily pools will be made.

Mrs. Louise McCarn, acting city manager, reported that numerous complaints had been received from residents in the district about the quantity of water which rolled down the drive each morning and accumulated there, backing up either side of the street and forming pools which made it difficult and unpleasant for pedestrians.

Early each morning, Mayor F. V. Shannon explained, janitors for business houses on both sides of the street, flush off the walks with water from hoses. Pieces of paper, cigaret stubs and other litter is squirted from walks and lawns into the gutter and the sum total of all this effort sends considerable volume of water into the gutters. Work of street sweepers is set at naught as the neat little piles, awaiting the waste disposal truck, are washed down the drive along with the sidewalk rubbish.

The matter was referred to Ray Sorum, public works director, and Roy W. Colegate, city attorney, for study and a possible regulatory ordinance.

Riverside County Forges Far Ahead In Bond Purchases

With Palm Springs doing its part in the county total, Riverside county went well over its quota in war bonds sales in December, it was reported this week.

The county's quota for December was $482,000 and the sales amounted to $528,214.

The increased sales enabled the county to pass many other counties on the state's honor list.

With the opening of the new year, the county's quota was boosted to $607,000, a sizeable increase over the old figure.

Colegate Wins Case For Riverside City

Minor Stop Signs To Be Eliminated To Save Gasoline

There won't be so many stop signs at local corners where motorists waste gasoline coming to a stop and starting again in low.

Chief of Police Lyle L. Sanard, acting on suggestions from the Los Angeles OPA, Wednesday night submitted a list of minor stops which he recommended could be eliminated for the duration of gasoline rationing and his recommendation was adopted by city council on motion by Councilman John Connell, seconded by Councilman C. P. Adams.

In every instance, signs which will be removed, are from corners where the view is unimpeded in all directions. Because of this policy, at some intersections there will be a stop sign on one side of the crossing but not on the other.

Stop signs will remain on all important and dangerous corners and stops will be enforced, the chief said.

Pittsburghers Here For Another Season

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Kretzschmar of Pittsburgh, Pa., arrived via train for their fifth season in Palm Springs. What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Save now to buy later, after the War. That's good common sense because if you spend now, you help to drive prices up for everything you buy. Durable goods are scarce so invest in War Bonds today and do that house remodeling when Victory is won.

If you have not done so, join a Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory. If you are not investing at least ten percent in War Bonds, increase your regular deductions on your Payroll Savings Plan. Let's "Top that ten percent."

In Appreciation

NEWS of the resignation of Mrs. Melba Bennett as chairman of the Palm Springs USO was received with regret by Villagers but she probably will be missed most by the hundreds of soldiers, stationed in and near the city who have had occasion to visit the Hospitality House on Tamarisk road.

For Mrs. Bennett has given much time and money to the effort to give the soldier probably the only thing the army cannot—the home touch.

She was one of the prime movers and organizers of the local USO and has devoted much time to the effort since. Her work to aid the men in service to be more comfortable did not stop with the USO. Mrs. Bennett remained at the Deep Well Ranch all summer while most of the remainder of the Villagers went away to avoid a summer on the desert. She kept the pool open for service men and in other ways saw to it that the sudden change from civilian life to army life, a condition which held true for most of the men here last summer, was not too harsh.

Most people know of the many hours Mrs. Bennett put in to make the soldiers leisure hours more pleasant but few will ever know the amount of money she gave, too.

There are hundreds of soldiers, most of them now on the fighting lines, who will long remember Mrs. Bennett gratefully—and she undoubtedly believes that is sufficient reward for her efforts.

Sure, Palm Springs Can Buy a Bomber

NEXT month Palm Springs is going to buy a bomber for Uncle Sam, a heavy bomber, cost price of which is $300,000.

That sounds like a lot of money in a 28-day campaign but the Palm Springs War Bond committee says it can be done, so it undoubtedly will be done.

It is a golden opportunity, too, to gain some more desirable publicity for the Village. If the goal is reached, or better yet, when the goal is reached, the total will put the Village, on a per capita basis, right near the top in bond sales in the nation for the month. That would be something—to do the most in the shortest time, for February is the shortest month in the year.

So extend your bond buying efforts next month. The Axis is on the defensive in many places.

Let's have the "City of Palm Springs" help start the finish.

Statement Lists Aims and Policies Of Realty Board

Members of the Palm Springs Realty Board, in special session Thursday, drew up a statement of aims and policies designed to protect property owners and prospective buyers and to keep their business on a high level.

The realty board, the statement sets forth, has a high standard of ethics to which it strictly adheres. The code is identical to that maintained by state and national associations, and this means that Palm Springs realty board firms will not misrepresent property or property values.

The board members thoroughly appreciate that their individual welfare depends upon their service to clients and to the community.

"We believe in the future of Palm Springs and feel a responsibility toward those who have shown faith in the community by faithful development and prideful ownership and toward those who wish to join this community."

The statement listed the following member firms: Raymond Cree, Muriel E. Fulton, Harold Hicks, Charles Mathews, John Munholland, Culver Nichols, Robert Ransom, John W. Williams, Billy Wright, Robert Seaton, and their office associates.

Father of Villager Arrives for Visit

Fielding L. Jones, of Grant's Pass, Oregon, arrived in Palm Springs today to spend the season with his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Boles of the Tahquitz Inn, 124 East Arenas road.

Mr. Jones, who is 87, was accompanied south by another daughter, Mrs. Margaret St. John and her two children, who will spend the week-end here.

YOU NEED A NEW TIRE. SO WHAT? You Can't Get One, Just Like That, Now Days

A lot of folks have the wrong idea about tires and what to do to get them. One lady came into the Palm Springs Ration Board office this week and said she understood she had to tell the board she needed some tires and they would give her an order for them, pronto.

That's not the way it works. There are many hurdles to overcome before you get tires — in the first place you cannot get tires just because you want them, or because YOU think you need them. That ended December 7th, 1941. There is a rubber shortage, perhaps you have heard. There are also 25 million other cars, plus almost 5 million trucks, to say nothing of tractors and other non-highway equipment of an essential sort, that need rubber. Then army and military needs, plus naval and air forces, that have first call on hundreds of thousands of tons of rubber, which just, we do not have, at least not spare.

THINK HARD AND LONG

So when you think about tires, think hard and long. First, you get that inspection made, where by a service station or garage inspector who has been appointed for the job (in Palm Springs almost a dozen inspectors may be found) will examine your tires for a small fee. If he finds them all usable and none in need of repairs or replacement, he will write that on your inspection certificate, the little paper which you got when you registered for your "A" book. If, however, any of your tires need replacement with new ones because the tire is worn beyond the point where it can be safely "recapped" or "retreaded", he will then furnish you with a "Tire Application" blank form, a supply of which is now to be found for use (not casual distribution) at all inspection stations.

You will fill out a lot of spaces on three pages of this 8x10 form, he will fill out the designated spots for his tire condition report and the last page is for use of the Tire Panel of your local Ration Board.

HOW IT WORKS

When the tire man has finished your report and signed it, he may have indicated that you have three tires which are in good condition, one which is "beyond repair" and one "recapable".

So off you now march to the Ration Board office. If you have only an "A" book and it is registered in Palm Springs, you need not go further for documents, but if you hold a "B" or "C" book obtained elsewhere, you better first find out whether you must apply for them where you got your Rations. Or maybe you are in the Army and stationed at a desert station, though your family lives here. Recent changes in this phase of rationing need to be looked into.

THEN YOU WAIT

However your case may be straight and uncomplicated. You go to the Ration Board and there file your application for the tires or recaps which the inspectors states you need. So what? Well, the next step will be waiting.

The local Tire Panel (volunteers you know — and unpaid volunteers remember) meets on Monday and Friday of each week; usually in the afternoon. They then consider the applications which have come in since the last meeting.

The regulations prescribe how they shall dole out the certificates for tires. After wrestling with the needs as shown on the applications, and getting the "worstest" at the top of the pile, with most essential Army and Defense workers duly considered, this panel now tries to fit the needs into the "Quota".

THE BURYING GROUNDS

That word "Quota" is the burying ground of countless hopes. Last month the "Quota" or share, assigned by the powers that be, to the local area, fell short by several hundred tires, of meeting the needs. So you see what you are up against. The panel cannot issue certificates beyond its quota and the quota is not nearly large enough to supply the need so somebody has to take a back seat. Just who? Of course there are always some folks who believe that you have to have some sort of pull to get your share in matters like this. However, it may be said in all honesty that your local tire panel, as a part of your Rationing Board, is an impartial group. Position, wealth, standing or reputation have nothing to do with tire issues. The facts must speak for themselves. The most essential users, according to rather clear definitions issued by Government, get the first assignments, followed by others of an equal essentialness or standard, governed in this case by time of filing of applications, and in this regard the panel has all applications marked not only with the day of receipt, but with the clock-time of the day, so that if several applicants were equal in eligibility and need, time of filing would clearly establish who would get the issues if there were not enough to go around.

Just at this time of reporting, unless the January allotment or quota is increased, the chance of getting tires or tubes is almost nil, since the entire January Quota has been doled out to needy applicants. It is hoped some more tires, or at least recap releases, will be assigned by the Los Angeles headquarters for local use, during the rest of the month, but that remains to be seen. Drive carefully, pick up nails, glass, bits of metal, sharp rocks and other tire-cutters, wherever you see them to help yourself and others make your tires last longer. In the meantime do not drive a single mile you can avoid, for the more your local board sees of the rubber situation, the more serious it becomes. To win this war we simply must make our rubber last and last and last—until we get an assured supply—some distant day in future—so that means run less and less. It's hard to believe, but true.

Oh! Yes. About that tire application of yours. What happened to it? If the tire panel managed to fit your need into the quota supplies they then make out a certificate known as OPA Form R-2-revised. This again consists of four pages on letter size yellow and blue paper. Part of it is for you — part of it is for the dealer to whom you go for your tire or two, or perhaps recapping service and part of it finally goes back to the Board. No — the Ration Board does not sell tires — it does not have any tires in its possession — it does not tell you who has them in stock nor what make or kind you are able to obtain. Like any rationed commodities the Board only authorizes you to buy — it has no recommendations to make.

THEN YOU GO OUT

Since you are lucky enough now to have the right to go out and buy one of the most precious articles in the world, a tire or tube, or recap in a world of diminishing rubber — in a war-torn world in which 98 per cent of its rubber supply is inside the boundaries of those countries and islands which now Japan completely controls — you are just a plain American who has a worthy need and your government has tried, through a rationing program, to help your need.

Safeguard that treasure when you get it.

And as you go from tire dealer to dealer, trying to get your size

75 Turn Out for Weekly Gathering Of Desert Wives

Seventy-five were present this week when the Desert Wives club met in the Fiesta House at the Desert Inn. The club is composed of wives of officers stationed on the desert near Palm Springs and each week the attendance at its Monday meetings grows.

Members who have not delivered their squares this week are urged to do so by Monday as all of the afghans the club has been making for convalescents at hospitals in the desert area will be delivered next week to Mrs. Walton H. Walker, wife of General Walker, for distribution.

All members who plan to attend the luncheon of the club on Feb. 7 were urged to be sure to make reservations.

Another reminder was issued to those who do not knit to bring their scissors to the regular Monday meeting at the Fiesta House for there will be plenty of work for them.

EXPLAINED — The hand is quicker than the eye—that's why there are so many black eyes—but seriously speaking—one reason why magicians can get away with their tricks so easily is because they use such pretty assistants to detract the eyes of the audience. Above, Private Chester Summers of Torney General Hospital, professionally known as "Baron Chico" does his tricks for soldiers at the Palm Springs USO with Miss Carolyn Cobb as his assistant.

And the profession to which I've sworn allegiance from the time I was old enough to ask: "Paper, Mister?" to this day when I get more out of a typewriter with two fingers than a lot of experts can with ten, isn't to be sneezed at. Here's what a lot of big-wigs in Los Angeles decided the other day:

IT WON'T BE LONG — John H. Calvin, nationally known writer and astrologer, says it won't be long now. According to charts, Adolf Shicklegruber, alias Hitler, will pass from the picture on March 19, 1943. Mr. Calvin, who is now in Palm Springs, has analyzed the astral-photo of the Nazi chief carefully and is confident that shortly after the Ides of March a climactic event is to occur. . . If Mr. Calvin is right, we can all thank our lucky stars. . . The Palm Springs story I like best is about the tired business man and the artist. The artist had been talking for two hours about his profession without letting our tired business friend get in a word edgewise about his own trade. Finally the artist said: "And next I am going to paint Mount San Jacinto!" "My, that'll take a lot of paint, won't it," said the t. b. m.

ZIP THE LIP — Did you ever stop to think that in this country, where you are your own judge of what you shall listen to or what you shall say, it follows that you should be your own security officer? In other words, since you have the right to talk, wouldn't it be smart not to talk so much so that you can keep that right? The government says the enemy is still getting too much information from a gabbing American public. The government can't act alone in keeping information from the enemy — for the government isn't the only possessor of vital information. Trouble is, too many people like to give the impression they're "on the inside" and what they say reaches dangerous ears. Right now the dumber you are, the smarter you are.

and mining machinery was developed to do the job. I submit to the public the results of over 12 months successful operation. From approximately 35 thousand tons of dump material, 3,600,000 pounds of metallics were recovered in about 300 working days, consisting of:

Lead, 288,000 pounds.
Tin, 72,000 pounds.
Copper, 180,000 pounds.
Miscellaneous non-ferrous, 60,000 pounds.
Scrap iron, 3,000,000 pounds.
Gold and silver, $30,000.00.
Old coins, $1,800.00.

HIG YIELD TOLD

Believing the time would come when it would be necessary to salvage every workable city disposal dump in the country, I have tested these dumps in many states and proved that 50 City Waste Disposal Dumps should produce in a year the following results:

Lead and tin . . . 1,680,000 lbs.
Copper . . . 9,000,000 lbs.
Misc. non-ferrous . . . 3,000,000 lbs.
Scrap iron . . . 150,000,000 lbs.
Gold and silver . . . $1,500,000.00
plus $90,000.00 recovered from old coins returned to the mint.

IN SHORT TIME

Fifty of these projects could be put in operation in less than five months, utilizing idle gold mining equipment, small machine shops and foundries. I am convinced that individual operators and capital should be interested in doing this job, providing the WPB made it possible to secure material and equipment.

This country is full of city waste disposal dumps, cast iron foundry dumps, factory dumps, trap shooting grounds and army target ranges which should be equipped and producing. City dumps alone can be made to produce our normal supply of tin, at least for a time.

The operation of the Los Angeles city dump has been called to the attention of various members of the WPB over a period of several months and there is no evidence of anything being done about it. It would seem at this time the least the government could do would be to make it possible for Mr. Mechanical Mind to proceed to produce.

dle of the desert, exported 40 million gallons of water in 1942 to one customer, besides selling hundreds of thousands of gallons of water to the army and nearby industry. . . In the east, where there is a heating fuel shortage, there's considerable turmoil because taverns get fuel while some churches had to close because of the cold. . . William G. Bonelli, board of equalization member, took an indirect slap at Los Angeles judges who fined bootleggers, who had sold liquor to soldiers outside of legal hours, merely $100. "In other countries," he said, "those guilty of such sabotage of the armed forces would be shot. Giving them the extreme penalty of $500 fine and six months in jail would not be too severe a penalty when you consider the damage these bootleggers are doing the war effort."

NATURAL — That produce truck which caught fire Monday leaving in its wake the smell of burned toast, of eggs which had been dropped on a hot stove and of scorched meat, brought back memories to many a man on Palm Canyon drive. It smelled just like the kitchen does when mama's away and papa does his own cooking. . . "A lot of people," said a soldier the other day, "get that warm, generous feeling when they respond to a plea for 'books for soldiers' when all they've brought in is a set of the Bobsey twins or a series of Elsie Dinsmore books their maiden aunt left behind." . . . Somebody, I can't remember his name, put up a good slogan for books for soldiers drives recently. He said: "Any book you want to keep, is a good book to give to the soldiers."

LET'S GET OUR OWN — Some of these days Schicklegruber is going to jump up and down and yell at us: "Yah, you can't even think up your own words!" If our radio commentators and headline writers don't mend their way. Can't we find our own word for "blitz", "stafe" and the like? Those are Nazi words. If we had to have Liberty cabbage instead of sauerkraut, in the first World War, why can't our airplanes rake the enemy now instead of strafing him. And a lightning air war is just as fast and destructive as a blitzkrieg. . . If the commentators really get stuck for an expression, their fellow radio artist, Charley McCarthy might help out with his "clip 'em and mow 'em down."

We always have time enough, if we will but use it aright.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD AMENDS NATURAL GAS ORDER

What this amended Limitation Order now means to gas heating users . . .

THIS ORDER, known as L-31, was issued last February by the War Production Board. It was designed to make the most effective possible use of our country's natural gas facilities for the duration of the war. For this reason it limited the use of gas for heating homes by placing certain restrictions on the installation and use of certain kinds of gas heating appliances.

Here is a brief interpretation of the amended provisions which affect heating, but do not affect cooking, water heating, or refrigeration:

1. Any house heating equipment which was eligible for use and was being used in a residence prior to November 30, 1942 (effective date of the change in the Order) may be continued in use.
2. Additional gas heating equipment may no longer be installed. (Formerly, under the Order, "minor" or "auxiliary" gas heaters could be added.)
3. Worn-out gas heating equipment may be replaced by new equipment of the same type and of no greater capacity than the old equipment. However, for example, "central" gas heating equipment, such as a furnace, cannot be installed to replace individual room heaters, as it would be of a different type. (Sale of new heating appliances is limited by other Governmental Orders, and your heating dealer should be consulted, if you plan to purchase.)
4. Use of gas heating in new houses is further restricted. Under the former Order, gas heating equipment could be used in "restricted new houses" (those started after March 1, 1942) if such use was incidental to the use of other fuel for heating, or if the occupant owned and used the gas heating equipment at a former location. Under the amended Order, however, NO gas HEATING appliances can be installed or used in restricted new houses, unless they were installed and eligible prior to November 30, 1942.
5. Installation of ineligible gas heating equipment, as well as its use, is prohibited by the amended Order.

Gas Coupon No. 4 Becomes Effective In 'A' Books Today

Palm Springs motorists started on their second lap of their "A" book coupons this week when No. 4 coupon went into effect.

Any motorists caught with No. 3 coupons left when the change went into effect today, were just out that much gasoline. No. 3 coupons became worthless at midnight yesterday, January 21.

The eight No. 4 coupons entitle motorists to 32 gallons of gasoline at the present allotment of four gallons per coupon which prevails on the West Coast.

EIGHT MILES DAILY

Since these No. 4 coupons expire on March 21, motorists have 58 days in which to use these 32 gallons. The government figures drivers should get 15 miles to the gallon. So autoists holding A books know they may drive 480 miles in 58 days or an average of about eight and a quarter miles per day.

"By careful driving motorists will probably get more than 15 miles per gallon," said William Lippman, chairman of the Palm Springs war price and rationing board and chairman of the gasoline panel, "but if they only get 15, they had better budget their A book needs to approximately 58 miles of driving per week."

IT WILL BE TOUGHER

February, being a short month, gives motorists an extra two days. Your No. 5 coupons, good from March 21 to May 21, will have to stretch over 61 days — which, at 15 miles per gallon, means less than eight miles a day or around 55 miles a week.

Mr. Lippman urged motorists to budget their driving as they do their cash. Many "A" book holders literally coasted into Thursday, the day the No. 4 coupons became good, with empty tanks.

Palm Springs High Indians Leading In Basketball Loop

The battling Indians of Palm Springs high sunk their tomahawks deep into the heart of the Banning Bronchos last Friday when they defeated them in a hot basketball game 23-12. Going into the game with the lust for victory burning in their hearts, the Indians were quick to take the lead and they held it throughout the game.

Joe Sandeffer, Indian forward, was the first player to draw blood when he sunk a beautiful basket from the right corner of the court. Taking their cue from Sandeffer, the Indians opened up with a blistering attack and fast break which kept the Bronchos constantly in hot water.

SANDEFFER HIGH

Taking the honors for the day was Joe Sandeffer who made five kills good for ten points. Playing his position as forward, Sandeffer sunk the casaba time after time to lead the Indians to victory.

Starting the game for the Indians were Sandeffer and Devers at forwards, Captain Gilbert at center, Gil Smith and Herb Lienau at the guard spots. Taking the ball off the backboard time after time, Lienau and Smith would start a fast break down the court which constantly caught the Bronchos napping.

SECOND STRING BUSY

After the starting team had put the Indians far ahead, the second string was sent in and continued where the first string had left off. The team which replaced the starting line-up was composed of Al Adolph, Jerry Tracy, Vernon Ward, Bill Foster and Norval Scrivens.

By winning this game from Banning, the Indians forged ahead in the race for the championship. Having won over Coachella 21-10 and Banning 23-12, the Indians have only to defeat Beaumont Friday to have firm grip on the championship. The Indians will travel to Beaumont Friday where they will encounter the Cougars on their home court. Because this is one of the crucial games of the season, it is hoped that as many rooters as possible will be on hand to cheer the Indians on to victory.

Frosh Volleyball Team Drops Game To Faculty Group

In a hotly-contested volley ball battle played Tuesday noon, the Freshman team suffered a defeat at the hands of an agile faculty team, the score reading 15 to 4.

The large group of student spectators were amazed at the prowess displayed by the faculty team which was composed of: Misses Mary Hall, Carmon Cook, Peggy Clarke and Messrs. Max Vaucher, Wood Glover and Paul Summers.

Dick Moseley, Don Whitehead, John Wilson, Tom Peterson, Julie Martineau, Carol Linde, Carol Burkett, Shirley Morris and John Klug ably represented the Freshman class.

Bill Gilbert, student referee, labored under difficulties as the audience "heckled" him throughout the game, presumably for giving the "breaks" to the faculty.

Sixteen Student Speakers Seeking Places in Lions Oratorical Contest

Sixteen students of Palm Springs High have prepared speeches for the Sixth Annual Speakers Contest, sponsored by the Lions Clubs of California and Nevada. On the principle that the students will be the citizens of tomorrow, the subject chosen for this year is "After the War—What?" The speeches must not be less than eight minutes or not over ten minutes in length.

The order of the speakers are: Archie Van Linkletter, Barbara Knowles, Barbara Miller, Beatrice Willard, Carolyn Purcell, Clarence Nicholson, Elso Kofeldt, Jack Hoover, Jeanne Martineau, Madge Rocks, Matthew Hennes, Nancy MacNaught, Patricia Bryce, Robert Roy and William Gilbert.

The preliminary contest began on Wednesday, January 20, with Charles J. Burkett, John Sprague, Jr., and Mrs. Kathryn Martin as judges. This will continue until Friday when six of the speakers will be chosen for the semi-finals.

A special assembly will be held on Monday the 25th, when a vote of the faculty will select three to give their speeches in the Community Contest to be held at the Lions Club regular meeting on February 4.

May We Introduce....

By MARTI ROBINSON
And ROG BRANIGER

This week we'd like you to become acquainted with a handsome, up-and-coming athlete, born in Redlands, California on September 21, 1927, and now a member of the Sophomore Class of P. S. H. S. The fact that this fellow is 15 years of age, 5 ft. 8 and 3/4 inches in height, has huge blue eyes, brown wavy hair, and an enviable broadness in the shoulders only goes to show why he's a heart smasher among the females of our student body.

The gentleman pals around with such "enthusiasts" as Donny Gmlin, Frank Downs, John Hobson and Gil Smith. When asked what he likes, he replied without the flicker of an eyelash—"Girls"—day dreaming — and more girls. Under the heading of dislikes come Geometry (with a capital "G"), cutting wood at 4:00 o'clock in the morning, and waiting on his dashing brother!

In the food line, he prefers milk and tamale pie to most anything else — and I'll bet he'd have a hard time buying a suit of his favorite color — for it happens to be "brunette" now.

We now proceed to the matter of favorite entertainments and sports of the lad of the week, which happen to be centered around "Tuscany" (need we say more?) and football. In answer to the question "What do you like best in girls, Mr. L?" he replied, "Any old thing, but I don't like 'em hanging out of car windows." His favorite record is "I Cried for You" by Harry

James, but he likes the all-time favorite Glenn Miller best, in the band line.

Everybody wants this fellow around because of his ability to have fun any time, any place, and anywhere. He's a swell all-around guy and everyone who knows him likes him. See—with-out further ado—may we introduce—Bob Lienau.

This week we have a Sophomore. She's 5 ft. 7-in., weighs 125. She has the old combination of blond hair and blue eyes, with a few freckles on her nose.

She pals around with Norma Jean and Tony. Her favorite record is "Strictly Instrumental", by her favorite band leader Harry James.

She prefers blue for color, and apples for food. She likes sports, so she plans on being a P. E. teacher. Her pet dislike is jealous boys.

There seems to be quite a mystery as to whom she would like to meet. From what we hear around the campus, her pal Norma Jean has a boy friend named Dale Baldwin, and everybody wants to know what he looks like and all about him. Our "personality" of the week is one of that group.

Her favorite movie star is Lt. Jimmy Stewart, U. S. Air Corps. Having summed up all of her likes, dislikes, etc.—may we introduce "Babs" Neel.

Plans for Victory Corps Explained Before Students

Conditioning and training preparatory to early induction into war services, was the theme of an address by Stanton Griffing, local American Legion enthusiast, given before students of Palm Springs High School in an assembly held Thursday morning, January 14.

After explaining what the high school victory corps is and how such corps are being organized and conducted in high schools the country over, Mr. Griffing proposed a plan for adoption here in which military drill in some of its elementary forms could be offered during part of the time ordinarily devoted to physical education programs. He explained that the Victory Corps program is followed in order to train high school students for induction into war services. Participation in this program orients students with the different branches of the armed services also, he pointed out.

LISTS QUALIFICATIONS

The speaker listed four qualifications necessary to membership in the H. S. V. C. as follows: (1) the enrollee must engage in an intensive program of physical fitness and health, (2) all enrollees 17 and over must participate in courses in first aid, (3) members must be registered for military drill if they are boys, and (4) each member must engage in some type of community war service.

Mr. Griffing declared that Nazism was forced upon the world scene as a result of people wanting to burst the bounds set up by nationalistic restrictions erected to protect economic progress. He advocated tolerance and fair-play for all peoples and countries in the present struggle and plead for eternal vigilance and preparedness to stamp out future signs of aggression.

MUST BE REVIEWED

Mr. Griffing's proposal for specific courses in elementary military drill in the local high school was taken under advisement by the school administration.

Because of difficulties encountered in attempts to institute a similar program during the school year 1941-42, Principal E. E. Oerter said today any plans formulated for military training in the high school would have to be carefully reviewed by the Board of Trustees before any first steps were taken in the direction of adding such an activity to the curriculum.

Football Coaches Honored By School At Assembly Event

Wood Glover and Paul Summers, coach and assistant coach of football at Palm Springs high, were given tokens of appreciation by the football squad of '42 in an assembly held Monday afternoon. Herb Lienau, outstanding varsity fullback for the past three years, made the awards.

The awards were two trophies in plastic and gold, standing about one foot high. Inscribed on the trophies is the phrase, "In sincere appreciation for wise counsel, good fellowship, and the effective inculcation of high ideals in good sportsmanship." Both Mr. Glover and Mr. Summers gave short talks following the presentation in which they thanked the team for the trophies and the students for loyal support.

The second part of the assembly program was the showing of a film "Trees for Tomorrow", a documentary educational picture portraying the many new uses for forest products and urging a program of reforestation. The picture revealed the damages caused by some forest fires and urged upon spectators greater attention to conservation programs in the interest of national security and defense.

Among guests at The Desert Inn is Mrs. Marjorie Michael of Santa Anita Oaks, Arcadia. Mrs. Michael is a well-known sports dress designer and member of the Fashion Group Incorporated of America. Her designing captured a blue ribbon in the very recent Market Week showing in Los Angeles.

Second Half of School Year Begins With New Regulations in Effect

Half of the current school year is over. The second semester starts Monday, January 25, and with the new term come new rules and regulations formulated by the faculty and presented and explained to students in a special counseling period on Monday of this week.

The new rules are designed to promote scholarship and citizenship and are based on experience acquired during the first semester. More regular and uninterrupted attendance in regular classes is the objective of most of the regulations just published.

THE NEW RULES

Chief among these are the following:

1. No student will be excused from the classroom except in emergency unless he is given a written permit or an official pass.
2. An unexcused absence from class on the part of a student in attendance at school on a given date (a "cut") will result in at least double the regular unexcused absence penalty. Parents will be notified by telephone or by personal call on second offense.

ON MAKE-UP RULES

3. The prevailing rules governing make-up period will be continued. Students are reminded that as long as they have any time to make up they must make up this time daily unless excused in advance. Each failure to do so adds another make-up period to the total.

4. "Cutting" an assembly will result in a penalty of two make-up periods. Students who do not wish to attend assemblies may, if they make arrangements in advance, study in room 10 under supervision during assembly time.

CLASS WORK ONLY

5. In the future no regular class time may be used to conduct or prepare for extra-curricular activities unless such activities are class projects conducted under the direct supervision of the teacher of this class and are approved by the office for execution during the regular school day, of which 7th period is not a part.

6. Students who in the future give trouble during assembly programs may be subject to specific seat assignments, which assignments will be in force for the remainder of the semester.

7. No food or candy will be sold to students in the cafeteria before or after lunch hour.

REPORT AT ONCE

8. Students sent to the office from a classroom because of poor conduct must report to the office immediately and remain there for the remainder of the period. There is an automatic penalty of at least one make-up period for each such visit to the office. After three such visits parents are summoned and suspension from class or school is imminent. When teachers send students to the office for discipline, the reasons for exclusion from class should be given to the office personnel either verbally or in writing on the permit-to-leave-class form. These reasons are kept in a special file in the office and the cumulative written reports will be available in the event of a conference with parents or guardians.

9. Unexcused absence from school will hereafter result in a total loss of credit for the time missed, unless work is made up. Such loss of credit must be reflected in permanent grades and grade units.

MUST EARN WAY

10. Students who do not make reasonable efforts to work up to capacity will be given "F" grades consistently hereafter by order of the administration of this school. We wish to announce plainly and emphatically that it will not be our policy to pass or graduate students from this time on who do not actually earn their way. This policy will apply irrespective of length of time in school, age of student, and grade level placement.

TORNEY GENERAL HOSPITAL EVENTS

News of the Enlisted Men of the Medical and Quartermaster Detachments at Torney Army General Hospital, Palm Springs
By Sergeant (T4) Russel H. Genich

The initial issue of the hospital newspaper, "Torney (?)", went to press on Monday, January 18, and was distributed throughout the hospital the following day.

Colonel A. B. Jones is the honorary Editor-in-Chief, Captain, George Daily, Editor-in-Chief, and yours truly, Managing Editor. Also on the staff are T-Sgt. Maurice, S-Sgt. Loyd Lambert, Sgt. Easton Rhodes, T-4 Glenn P. Carr, Pfc. John Farnham, and Privates William Willard and Chester Summers. Others who contributed time or talent to the success of the venture were Principal Chief Nurse, Captain Katherine L. Ruhan, T-5 Sylvester Hughes, and Civilian employees Jeanne Scheibe, Ruth K. Hartford, Verna Groll, Helen Perrin, and Sylvia Lasco.

A contest to find a suitable name for the new publication is one of the features of the first issue. All military personnel of the Post are eligible, and the winner will be decided by a board of five men, two officers and three enlisted men; the prize for the winning entry is a five dollar Post Exchange coupon book.

The January 17, Sunday morning service conducted by Chaplain Frank Hayes was enhanced by several musical entertainers. Mrs. Thomas Clawson and patient Sergeant William G. Bloodworth collaborated on a vocal duet, Sweet Hour of Prayer. The choir sang Jesus, Lover of My Soul, on Schubert's Ave Maria. Mrs. Maurice Selinger ably accompanied at the piano.

Corinne Mura, lovely brunette singer of the Los Angeles Civic Opera and Hollywood fame, entertained patients and personnel of the hospital on Wednesday afternoon, January 13, with unique versions of Latin American songs. Miss Mura, who does a masterful job of the accompaniments on the guitar, proved to be an artist of the finest calibre. Her self-styled versions of rumba and tangos, which bespoke of excellent vocal technique, were nothing short of superb. Miss Mura is currently appearing in the movie "Casa Blanca."

Something different in camp entertainment, a "Crazy Quiz" sponsored by Captain George C. Daily of the Special Service department, was presented in the new recreation hall on Tuesday night, January 19 with military personnel of the command in attendance.

Quizmaster was Private William Willard, whose presentation and comic script made the program a hilarious success. Willard took a note from the successful Olson and Johnson show, "Hellzapoppin'", and embellished it with original personal touches.

Personnel of the two competing teams were members of the Nurse Corps and sergeants of the command. Second Lieutenants Gertrude Braun, Alberta Finch, Doris Gardner, Frances Mantor, and First Lieutenant Marion Saks comprised the ANC team. The other quintet included Sergeants Lloyd Lambert, Hansell, Carpenter, Alan Larsen, Glenn Carr, and your correspondent. The "ladies in white" were victorious by 1/4 of a point, declared Quizmaster Willard, sufficient evidence that it was a excitingly close contest.

The hospital orchestra played incidental music, and Private Chester Summers was the off-stage heckler.

Another Addition To Red Cross Staff Made at Hospital

Another member has been added to the Red Cross staff at Torney General Hospital this week. Mrs. Ruth Hurd has arrived at Palm Springs to assist in the recreational activities sponsored by the Red Cross for hospital patients.

Mrs. Hurd is from Portland, Ore., where she has had a number of years experience in municipal recreation work. Her experience has included both playground and community activities. Just before coming to Palm Springs, Mrs. Hurd was with the Red Cross at Fort Ord Station hospital.

The only conquests which are permanent, and leave no regrets, are our conquests over ourselves.

Moderation, Health and Public Morals Improved In Nine Years Since Repeal

Nine years after repudiation of prohibition the nation can count a gratifying trend toward moderation and an improvement of public health and morals, according to a survey of authoritative statistics assembled to mark the anniversary of repeal of the 18th Amendment. In 1932, the last full year of Prohibition, the crime rate was 1,645 per 100,000 population. Nine years later, the Federal Bureau of Investigation reported the gradual decrease in criminal cases had reached 1,581 per 100,000.

The U. S. Public Health Service says we, as a nation, are healthier than ever before. A report of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, issued at the end of the third quarter of 1942, states the year-to-date death rate for its many millions of policyholders is 7.4 per 1,000—an all-time low.

Government sources report that the health of the Army is also better than ever. The rate of Army hospital admissions for alcoholism for 1940, latest year available, was 2.7 per 1,000—a drop of 76% since the peak prohibition year of 1922 when the rate was 11.5 per 1,000. Reports from the Census Bureau show that the death rate from alcoholism has decreased more than 50% since its prohibition peak in 1928 and in 1941 was 1.9 per 100,000 population.

The National Safety Council reports that deaths from traffic accidents measured against motor vehicle mileage declined 33% since 1925.

The records of social and moral improvements, compiled from official sources by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, include a Federal report for 1941 showing that bootlegging seizures were reduced 73% since 1929; arrests by Federal agents down 61%.

Among the scientific findings reported in the authoritative medical publications are the following: "There is no clinical or pharmacologic evidence that would suggest that alcohol alone ever produces heart disease."—Dr. Paul White, Harvard Medical School.

"There is abundant evidence that alcohol alone does not cause cirrhosis of the liver."—Dr. James M. Beazell and Dr. Andrew C. Ivy of the Northwestern University Medical School.

"Our findings indicate that beer in reasonable amounts is essentially non-intoxicating."—Dr. H. W. Haggard, Yale University, in the New England Journal of Medicine.

Research has concluded that alcoholism is a symptom, rather than a cause of mental and other ills and education in moderate living and self-control are being used increasingly to combat it.

The favorite excuse of immoderate drinkers that they had only a "few beers"—no matter what they drink—has been exploded by use of scientific testing standards adopted by the American Medical Association.

The brewing industry's nationwide moderation program has also provided cooperation with law enforcement authorities to maintain proper conditions in places where beer and ale are sold.

One of the prized possessions of Chief of Police and Mrs. Lyle J. Sanard came in the mail this month—a photograph of their son, Corporal Bert Sanard, who is now in action overseas.

Corporal Sanard, who has been in the service for eleven months has been overseas for the past five. He was in London for a while but is now in Africa.

In the meantime, Sydney Sanard, the chief's youngest son, has received notice to appear for physical examination next Monday. Syd Sanard will be 19 on his next birthday.

Romance Starting In Village, Ends In S. F. Gun Play

A love affair which started in Palm Springs five years ago was culminated in a shooting affair in the courtyard of a fashionable club on Nob Hill in San Francisco this week when a woman, police identified as Madge Bellamy, star of the silent films, took three shots at Stanley Murphy, socially prominent northern lumberman Tuesday night.

Murphy wasn't hurt and Miss Bellamy, at liberty under $500 bond on an assault charge, says she really didn't mean to shoot him.

"I just wanted to scare him. He knows that, for he knows what a good shot I am," she said.

When first arrested, Madge Bellamy told police she met Murphy about five years ago in Palm Springs and that they fell in love. "He said he couldn't marry me because of his wife. He said he was going to divorce her but he had to be careful about publicity," police quoted her as saying.

They said she was enraged at Murphy because, after he obtained his divorce, he married another woman.

Noted Columnist Guest in Village On Western Tour

Nate Gross, columnist for the Chicago Herald-American, whose "Town Tattler" is widely read in the midwest metropolis, is a guest at C. King Charney's Lone Palm hotel for a brief stay—and as a result, the hearts of Chamber of Commerce officials are collectively being made glad.

For while Columnist Gross is in the Village, his daily column in Chicago is date-lined "Palm Springs."

After a stay of two or three weeks here, the writer expects to go to Hollywood for a short visit.

Noted Doctor and Bride Guests Here

Among distinguished guests at the Ingleside Inn are Dr. and Mrs. Myron Prinzmetal, who are honeymooning in Palm Springs after their recent wedding.

Dr. Prinzmetal, who is a noted heart specialist at the Cedars of Lebanon hospital, Los Angeles, won fame for his research work which led to the discovery of a means to combat high blood pressure.

ZIG ZAGS

By D. Diamond

About 9 a. m. on January 19th the old fire bell again called the villagers to do what could be done by an unorganized community to fight fire. The blaze was confined to a chimney at the Sunhaven Apartments and Mr. Harry Hann, with his patrons help, went over and put out the fire before the little fire truck got well started from its station. There is a lot of luck in this village and coupled with it the quick work of those near the incipient blazes lets us off with a few bad fires that we can't forget. Mr. A. J. Lacey, new home owner here but a third season resident, has registered as a voter and will sign the fire district petition which reduces the number that must qualify to fifteen. If you are eligible to vote here, please register.

Also on the morning of the 19th there was a decided several degrees of frost. Many domestic shrubs were nipped but I have heard of no material damage to ranches. Butane gas that was at a low ebb in village tanks refused to help out for breakfast but went to work later in the day when the sun reached the tanks and warmed them.

Keeping track of the Alex Rich family is like watching a war plane that circles the valley and keeps you on your toes to decide when it lights. I'm wondering, did you tell me to say nothing about this. Anyway it appears you have a summer home in the Pass and there will be some commuting done both ways.

Speaking of watching planes. There were eleven property owners which composed about one-third of those who listened to Capt. Barns of the Army Air Force speak at Town Hall Wednesday night. The introduction by Culver Nichols, Area Supervisor, and the assistance of Sergeant Wendle and Corporal Adler with the sound pictures made the evening well worth while. Unfortunately those who raise these questions were not present: "If I was convinced the Army really needed this post," "We don't need another post so close to Palm Springs," "Why doesn't the army do this work and it would be done better," "Nothing is going to happen out here," "It's only a civilian morale builder." Folks, those questions were answered and we are asked to continue to operate this post at its highest peak of efficiency. It was too bad that more did not see the films as one of them was shown only when we locals vouched for all present to Capt. Barns.

Announcement was made of awards of 500 hour pins to Frank Harrington and to Bill Saunders. Arm bands for those over 200 hours were awarded and included Dr. Brandt, C. S. Cobb, William Chance, David Diamond, Marguerite and Robert Hillery, Marie Ide, C. W. Larrison and Alpha-mary Larrison, Fred Springer and Esther Woods.

Those over 100 hours and many of them very near 200 who will be handed their arm bands as soon as received are: Edna Cobb, Robert Davall, C. M. Gephert, Robert Higgins and Jo Higgins, Chester Ide, James W. Kyle, Christina Lillian, Kurt Reineman, Norma Rich, W. C. Strong, Oline Saness, Max Vaucher and Jas. K. Wolseth. There are quite a number that have served almost 100 hours and will be in the next list of awards.

Elsewhere will appear items by ZigZag and I notice reference to our library that is receiving new life through the efforts of Mr. Kyle. Listen, Mr. Kyle, please read the article and get that $25 which added to a special building fund will make the new bank balance read $75.18. The other chief donor may not want his name published but there are always leaks when a good deed is performed and it surely was a fine gesture. A cottage type unit of a library building will surely rise on the library site just as soon as the war ends and material can be secured.

To the popular sound pictures being shown each Thursday night free to the community, by the school and in the local school building, will shortly be added one of the films shown by the Air Force Fighter Command. The request was made by Miss Gaines of the local school through Culver Nichols and Capt. Barns has promised the school it may use one of the films.

Just heard that John Nachants' brother, Gus Nachant, another sourdough, is visiting here from San Diego. Gus has, like John, long since fed his muckluks to the dogs and that goes for sourdoughs P. R. Richie and C. M. Gephert. And I almost forgot another because he has come here only lately and that is Frank C. Russell.

Overheard a remark made by one of our oldest residents: "There is gold in them there hills," with a sweep of his hands embracing all the surrounding mountains.

During my noon siesta, I found myself day-dreaming — organizing a prospecting citizen's committee in order to unearth that gold in "them there hills."

Accomplishing that, we began realizing our long cherished hopes and desires of our well-deserving, health restoring village, namely: the erection of a house of worship, library, recreational center. Paving of our streets, supported with symmetrical sidewalks and adorned with artistic streetmarkers, etc., suddenly I was jolted out of my day-dreaming by the voice of my wife, "You forgot to take your noon pills." This proves once more how true that famous French saying is—"Cherchez la femme."

Realizing that there might be many more citizens of my type in our midst, who by circumstances or otherwise were put on the shelf, after many years of struggling for achievements and met with disappointments. And also irrespective of the fact whether some of us survived partly or fell at the roadside—Well, here we are, alert in spirit, willing to do the right things toward our community and our good, blessed old U. S. A. But, to my sorrow, we are far from being the proper material to make prospectors find out, consequently we must find ways and means, through an evolutionary process, to realize our goals.

As I was brought down to earth I noticed in the last issue of "The Desert Sun" a report submitted by our Mr. Hillery to the effect that one of our spirited citizens, Mr. Peterson, donated to our community, a very generous gift in the form of a lot for the purpose of erecting a library building. The lot is centrally located, adjacent to our Town Hall.

Well, well, how marvelous the hand of destiny works! Since we can not possibly reach the gold in "them there hills," we discovered a richer vein than gold in the spirit of our citizens!

So here and now, let's all pledge to raise funds for the erection of a library. Every one of us will help piling up brick by brick. Here is my first $25.00 brick for the foundation of the structure. Who is next?

While throwing open the doors of our Town Hall for recreational purposes to our army wives, we overlooked to extend an invitation to an equal number of deserving wives of our defense workers. By the way, a great many of the wives, if not the greater many from both categories, are in the same boat of being pretty well occupied with nursing our future generation to avail themselves of the opportunity.

Too bad our law makers do not heed to the sign on the wall that a day of reckoning is approaching for filibustering our national war effort in order to protect the powerful blocks of various states and private interests as the farm labor block, labor block, silver block, Poll Tax block, etc. Ironically enough, the very same members of both houses are complaining bitterly for being unduly criticized by our spirited press and commentators, thereby destroying the faith in Congress as well as the morale of the people. I can almost hear the chuckle of Mephistophiles in the image of Hitler and the likes of him.

Don't Prune Now Is Advice Given Home Gardeners

Don't prune your shrubs and trees for a while! That was the advice today of E. E. Hoppe of Hoppe's Nursery. Because of the recent cold snap many home gardeners are itching to get at the pruning shears but Hoppe says: leave them be.

He advances two reasons for his advice. It is impossible to tell right now if the trees or shrubs have been damaged and if they have, how much. Pruning now may result of cutting deeper than necessary.

His second reason is that pruning now will leave the plant unprotected in the even of another cold spell.

Dora "That soldier is such a dear! He is going to teach me to play cards so I will know all about it after we're married." Daisy: "That's nice. What game is he going to teach you?" Dora: "I think he calls it solitaire."

We have now had experience in renting to many army officer families and we have this to say, they are welcome. We also place as many civilians as possible. We treat all alike, the best we know how.

Postoffice Department Stops Free Mail to Soldiers on Foreign Soil

Free distribution of local newspapers to men in the armed forces overseas are prohibited by a recent order by the postoffice department. All postmasters have been directed to stop the mailing of such newspapers as of January 15.

Item three in the Postmaster General's orders, the title of which is "Restrictions on overseas shipments to armed personnel," reads: "Individual copies of newspapers or magazines shall be accepted for dispatch to the A. P. O.'s outside the continental United States only where such subscriptions are specifically requested in writing by the addressee or for which subscriptions are now in effect."

CAN GO INSIDE U. S.

This order does not apply to delivery of home town papers to army posts and naval shore establishments within continental

United States. Nor does it apply to paid subscriptions in effect before January 15 and destined to post offices abroad.

The action by the Postmaster General was taken in co-operation with the Army and Navy in an effort to conserve space on transports. At the same time the Postmaster General issued his order, the War Department limited the sending of parcels to men overseas to packages containing articles requested by the soldier and the request must have the written approval of the commander of the battalion or similar unit. No package can be accepted at a postoffice unless the written request, bearing the commanding officer's approval is presented.

MANY FROM HERE

A score of men from Palm Springs, who have been receiving copies of The Desert Sun with the compliments of the publishers, are affected by the order.

USO Sounds Plea For Places Where Soldiers May Sleep

Mrs. Clema Granger, chairman of the housing committee of the USO this week asked that any villagers who have sleeping space available for service men in Palm Springs for week-ends, call her at 9890 or call the USO at 6024, and leave their names and the number of boys who might find accommodations.

"Some of these boys can afford to pay—and some cannot," said Mrs. Granger. "We'd like to have a list of both kinds, from those who have rooms to rent and from those who could find a place in their garage or on their patios or sun decks to put up cots for boys who cannot pay. Each week-end finds plenty of boys here with no place to sleep. Let's lend a hand!"

Second Moron: "I'm awfully sorry to get you out of bed this late, but..."

First Moron: "Oh, that's all right; I had to get up to answer the telephone anyhow!"

bers gathered up the rubbish, dumped on the desert by careless or thoughtless villagers, and placed it in one great pile on Ramon avenue where city trucks later gathered it up and took it to the city dump.

GATHER GREAT PILE

When members of the club called it a day, they had accumulated a pile of rubbish approximately 30 feet square and from four to five feet high. Three dump trucks aided the members in gathering the rubbish. One was loaned by William Veith, from the Indian agency office, and two by private citizens. Drivers of these were kept busy hauling the rubbish to the main pile.

Wherever club members found dumped rubbish, they planted a sign, prepared by Ray Sorum, director of public works, calling attention to city ordinance No. 100 which prohibits the dumping of rubbish any place within the city limits except at designated spots. The signs warned violators of stiff penalties involved in breaking this law.

Director Sorum wholeheartedly backed the club's campaign, furnishing signs calling attention to the ordinance and removing the accumulated pile of rubbish. William Veith, Indian agent, also backed the drive. Besides supplying a dump truck, he interested many Indians in the clean-up plan and they turned out to help. He also aided by installing signs warning against rubbish-dumping.

Noted Painter of Flowers Visitor In Palm Springs

Winifred Walker, noted English painter of whom Arthur Miller wrote in the Los Angeles Times, "... she paints with the eye of a scientist and the soul of an artist" is a visitor in Palm Springs this week with one of her panels of the wild flowers of California on exhibition at the Desert Inn art gallery.

Before coming to southern California, Mrs. Walker was artist to the Royal Horticultural Society in England and her water colors of flowers won acclaim in most of the noted galleries in Europe.

Mrs. Walker was en route to America on the Athenia when it was sunk off the coast of Scotland and while she, with 430 fellow passengers, reached port safely in a Norwegian ship, the Knute Nelson, all of the paintings she was bringing to this country were lost.

But she has replaced them and added many new panels which have been exhibited in many galleries in the United States. Because her colors are accurate as well as beautiful, Mrs. Walker has been elected by Botany professors to be a Fellow of the Linnaeus society.

Mrs. Walker will go to Stanford University on March 1 to exhibit her paintings there but she hopes to return to Palm Springs later.

'COALS OF FIRE'

The expression, "To heap coals of fire on his head," is used twice in the Bible, in chapter 26 of Proverbs and in chapter 12 of Romans. It has the meaning of "to melt down an enemy's animosity by deeds of kindness," or "to produce remorse by requiting evil with good." The Oxford Dictionary gives it in a quotation from Langland's "Vision of Pier's Ploughman" as early as 1377.

Davis Boys flattened 2483 pins in taking all three points from the Rutan Walkers to hold their lead in the league and Ward's Wonders were even more powerful as they blasted 2543 pins from the spots to overcome Randall's Financiers 3 points to none and move into second place from fifth place.

Federal Income Tax Reports Due March 15

Warning was issued today by Nat Rogan, Collector of Internal Revenue for Southern California, that 1942 Federal income tax returns are now due and payable and must be filed not later than March 15. "No one will be relieved of filing a 1942 return despite all rumors about the enactment of a 'pay-as-you-go' tax bill," he said.

"A check-up in our office indicates the fact that people seem to be delaying filing their returns in the hope that some Congressional action will be taken to 'forgive the 1942 tax debt.' As United States Senator George and Congressman Doughton, Chairman of the Congressional Ways and Means Committee pointed out recently, no matter what Congress does about a 'pay-as-you-go' tax bill, 1942 tax returns will be required.

"Every single person whose total income last year was 500 or more must file a return. Every married couple, living together during 1942, whose total aggregate income was $1200 or more, must also file a return. Deduction for the support of dependents has been lowered to $355."

Lady (with newspaper in hand): "It says here that a woman in Omaha has just cremated her third husband."

Old Maid: "Isn't that always the way? Some of us can't even get one, and others have husbands to burn."
